In common with all well-wishers of the Ohio State, Jeurnal, we periously regret the suicidal policy which its editors have adopted with refetence to the election of a United States Senator. that paper has sicrifixed its position as a State organ of the Republican party, and accepted the on of a mere factional organ. Instead of being the representative of the Republican party of Ohio, it is but the organ of one man and the exceedingly; and all the more because theeditors Lean. of the Journal assume the existence of facts which they cannot know to be true, and urge The object in giving one of the prisoners to the remons for their course which are altogether too.

> Here is the first reason which that paper puls forth in justification of the course which it has

The canvass just closed rung incessantly with the reiterated charge from every democratic speaker and press, that the election of a Repubtenn legislature Recured the return of Gov Chose to the Senate.

Mr. Pugh made the iss e as broad as his feeble powers could make it; and his friends insisted pon it with frantic vehemence.

Meanwhile the Republicans of Ohio wiped out the democratic majority in the tegislature which would have retained Mr. Pugh in the Senate. and it only remains for the Republican majority in that body to complete the work, so well be gun by the people, by sending Gov. Chase back to that seat in the national councils, which a temporary Democratic supremacy compelled him o yield to an unworthy successor. We have no desire to disparage the merits of other aspirants for this he norable position.

Because every democratic stump speaker, and particularly Mr. Pugh, said if the Republicans returns elect the entire Republican ticket, by got the legislature Chese would be elected to the from 1.000 to 20,000.
